

Founded and actively operating since 1964, Rematech division BreMO is specialized in the application and distribution of industrial vulcanized products. Rematech BreMO is a leader in conveyor belts and is particularly close to its customers. With many branches all over the province of Quebec, Rematech BreMO caters to diversified industrial businesses looking to achieve efficient plant productivity.

<http://www.rematechbreMO.com>

In order to serve to our customers, we are looking for a dynamic candidate to be a:

In house representative
(Full time position, at Jonquiere branch)

Angular stone among the organization, your main challenges will be to understand and answer the existing and potential different needs of clients; technical information, submission, orders, follow-up etc. You will have to work closely with the out of the office representatives, the branches and the technical department in order to develop and maintain a solid business relationship base on trust with the clientele.

The person we are looking for must have a professional or college degree in mechanic or in a field related to sale, experience in those fields, good personality and speak French fluently. Handling English would be an asset.

Many social advantages will be offered such as group insurance, pension plan and performance bonus.

If this position is in your career plan, please send us your resume at:

REMATECH DIVISION BREMO

A/S Caroline Kéroack

Human Ressources department

214, route 138

St-Augustin-de-Desmaures, Qc., G3A 2X9

 418-878-2288

 418-878-4070

 emploi@rematechbreMO.com